- Gratitude is the antidote to toxic emotions
- Gratitude opens the door to people and opportunities
- Gratitude is the evidence of spiritual maturity

"Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord:

"I will sing to the Lord, for He is highly exalted. Both horse and driver He has hurled into the sea. The Lord is my strength and my defense; He has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise Him, my father's God, and I will exalt Him."

[Exodus 15:1-2]

1. I sing because He saves

We didn't turn over a new leaf, He gave us a new life.

"The Lord is my strength and my song..."

[Exodus 15:2]

2. I sing because He is my song

"The Lord your God is with you, and He is your mighty savior. He takes great delight in you, calming all your fears with His love. And He rejoices over you with singing about you."

[Zephaniah 3:17]

I sing, because He sings.

"At the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up. The floods stood up in a heap; the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea."

[Exodus 15:8]

"You blew with Your wind; the sea covered them; they sank like lead in the mighty waters."

[Exodus 15:10]

"...threw the Egyptian forces into a panic, clogging their chariot wheels so that they drove heavily. And the Egyptians said, "Let us flee from before Israel, for the Lord fights for them against the Egyptians."

[Exodus 14:24-25]

3. I sing because He's supernatural

"By the power of your arm they will be as still as a stone— until Your people pass by, Lord..."

[Exodus 15:16]

4. I sing so all will know

"You will bring them in and plant them on your own mountain, the place, O Lord, which You have made for Your abode, the sanctuary, O Lord, which Your hands have established. The Lord will reign forever and ever."

[Exodus 15:17-18]

5. I sing until my prophecy becomes history

"David, together with the commanders of the army, set apart some of the sons of Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun for the ministry of prophesying, accompanied by harps, lyres and cymbals."

[1 Chronicles 25:1]
